JARRETT IS FINE BUCK-PASSER

Attorney Peters Demands Specific Charges and Sheriff Refers Him to Atty.-gen'l

M'DUFFIE MAKES SOME STARTLING CHARGES

Chairman Wirtz Says Captain Has Right to Hearing Before Civil Service Body

Appealing to the civil service commission for an immediate hearing on the charges upon which he was suspended from the police department this morning, and asking that the "profound secret" of what the charges consist be made known; branding the investigation into his department as a foul-dark-lantern attempt of a young man connected with the morning publication to "get him," Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie declared:

I am hardly in any position to make a statement at this time. Sheriff Jarrett simply informed me this morning that I was suspended "pending the charges against me." What the charges are seems at the present time to be a profound secret. The Sheriff does not seem to be able to inform me and I am not at all in sympathy with the statement that they are still in the hands of the attorney-general. What the attorney-general has advised Mr. Jarrett naturally I do not know; but immediately that the civil service commission is informed of the charges and specifications, I shall waive the right to privacy as granted by its regulations and ask for full and immediate publicity.

My record in the police department for the last four years speaks for itself. Had I had any inkling that there was any question touching the administration of my department, I would not have consented to take the trip to China. The present activity may have been in an embryonic stage at that time. I do not know. But my departure seems to have been the signal for the scandalous and unjust attacks upon me. The Advertiser intimates in this morning's issue that these charges, or some of them, were pending against me prior to my departure, and that its editor promised that these would not be made public until my return. This is absolutely false. Before my departure to China I spoke to Mr. Matheson and told him that I did not relish the trip, especially as I feared that just as soon as I departed the "knockers" would start in against me. And he assured me that IF ANY THING CAME UP he would not publish it until my return.

This investigation has been heralded as an "Advertiser" investigation. Its editor during my absence boasted the possession of affidavits containing charges against me. I understand that the Advertiser engineered the whole thing.

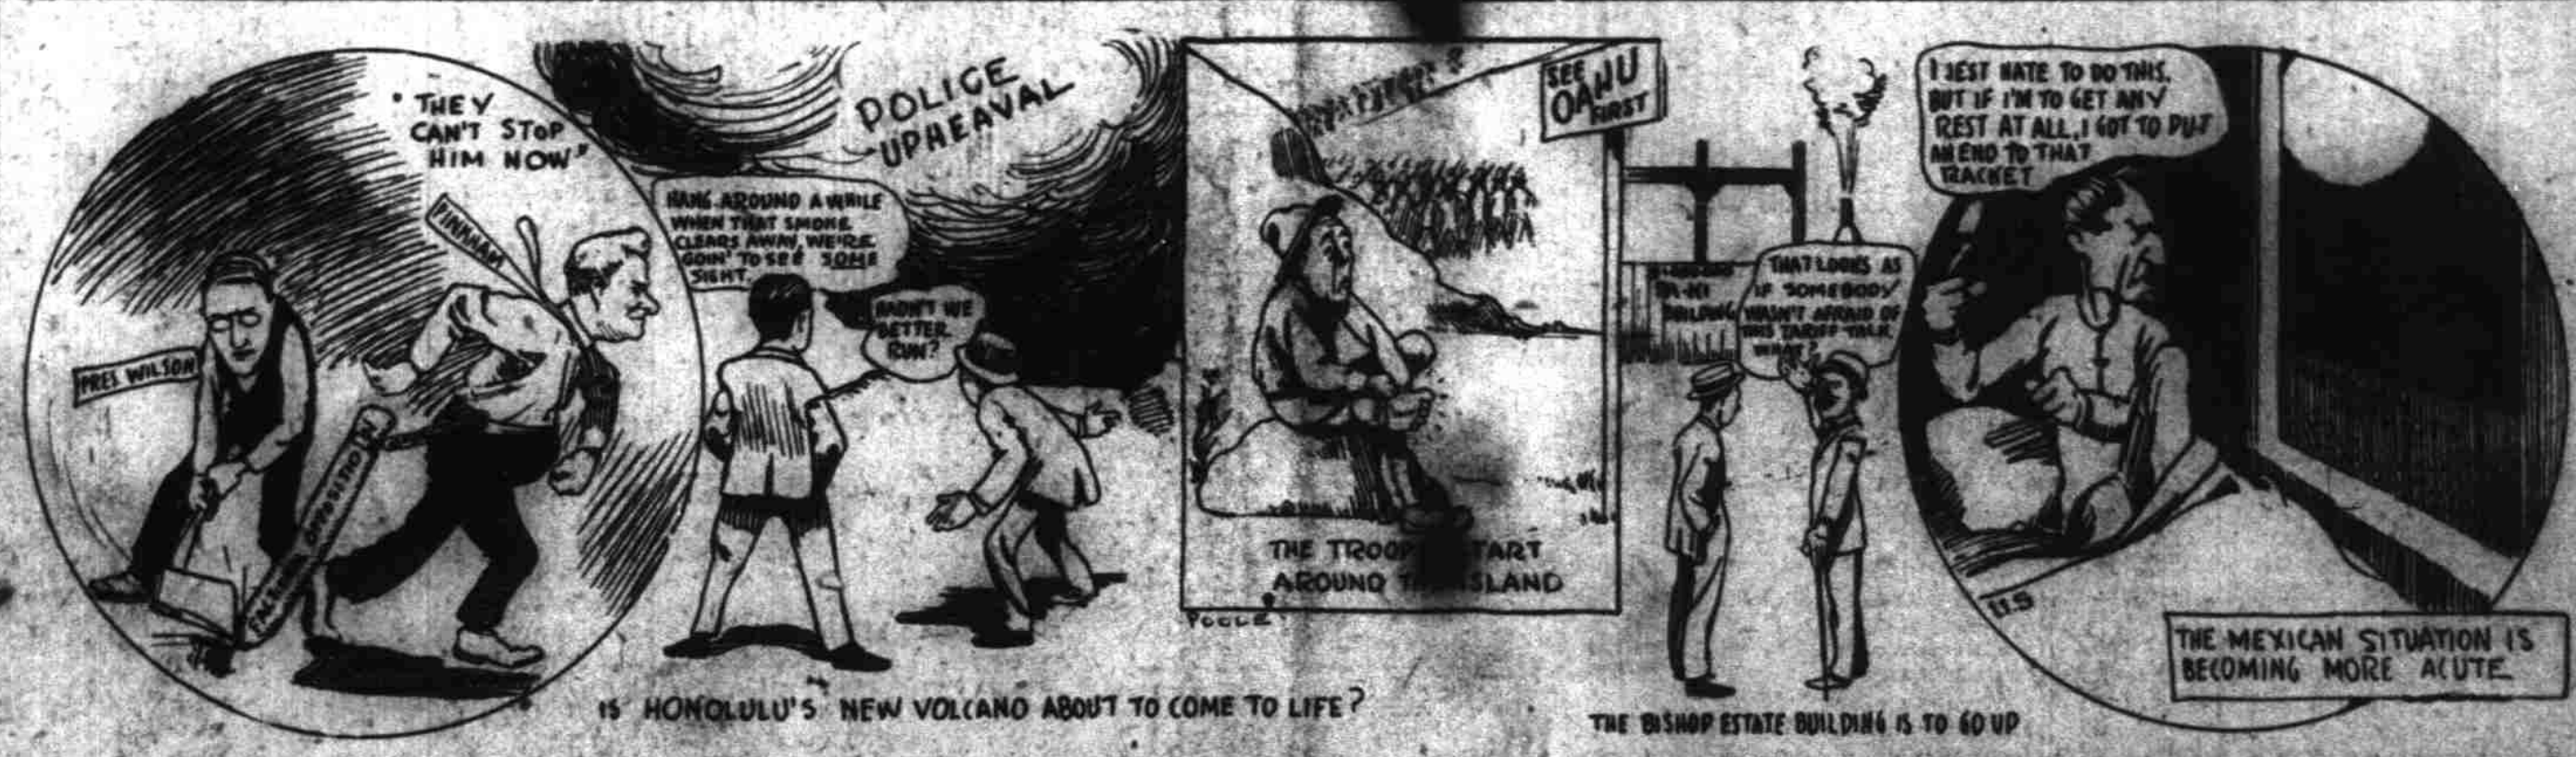

The special committee of the Republican territorial central committee, this morning announced the names of the special committee which has been empowered to revise the rules and regulations of the Republican party of Hawaii to meet the requirements of the direct primary law.

The proposed changes in the new party rules are to be submitted to all the precinct clubs of the territory preparatory to a rules convention to be held next February.

The special committee is composed of Chairman R. W. Shingle, Senator Charles A. Rice, Senator Cecil Brown, A. D. Castro and John C. Lane. The first three are chosen in accordance with the resolution passed by the committee recently, authorizing the chairman, national committeeman and treasurer of the party to serve, with the addition of two others, as the body to advise as to rules revision. Castro and Lane are the added members.

Chairman Shingle said this morning that he hopes to have the suggested changes completed in about another week. A number of party leaders have made valuable suggestions to be

McDUFFIE SAYS FIGHT UNFAIR

Asks That Charges be Heard in Open

Declaring that there is animus and thwarted personal ambition on the part of others back of the fight against him, Capt. of Detectives Arthur McDuffie, suspended this morning, made the following statement to the Star-Bulletin:

COMMITTEE PLANS TO CHANGE G. O. P. RULES COMPLETE

Robert W. Shingle, chairman of the Republican territorial central committee, this morning announced the names of the special committee which has been empowered to revise the rules and regulations of the Republican party of Hawaii to meet the requirements of the direct primary law.

The proposed changes in the new party rules are to be submitted to all the precinct clubs of the territory preparatory to a rules convention to be held next February.

GOV. PINKHAM MAY HANDLE BOND ISSUE

Cable from Frear States That Appointee is Giving Study to That Question

That it will be Governor L. E. Pinkham, not Governor W. F. Frear, who will obtain authorization for the new territorial bond issue is intimated in the following cablegram received by Acting Governor Mott-Smith from Governor Frear yesterday afternoon:

"Pinkham, studying bond matter. Confirmation probably next week. Send me your California address."

Territorial Treasurer D. L. Conkling has been expecting a message every day from Washington, saying the issue has been granted and ordering him to start out to handle the business arrangements. The cable has not come, however, and it is thought now that it will be sent after Pinkham's confirmation next week or early in November.

Word that Frear and Pinkham have been conferring together at the national capital on Hawaiian affairs does not come as any surprise, as the governor stated before his departure for the coast that he expected to meet Pinkham there and place the matter of the bond issue before him. This, as well as a number of other subjects touching on the insular government and policies, undoubtedly have been thoroughly discussed between the two since Governor Frear's arrival at Washington.

MOTHER WILL MAKE FIGHT TO SECURE CUSTODY OF DAUGHTER

Declaring that she has been refused permission to see her daughter, aged 13 years, and a student at the College of Hawaii, Mrs. Rose Roadley yesterday afternoon instructed her attorney, Leon M. Straus, to begin an action for the purpose of withdrawing the girl from the custody of W. G. Lockington, in whose care she was placed a number of years ago by the mother.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued yesterday afternoon and made answerable Tuesday. The mother declares that the authorities of the college refused her request to see the girl on the instructions of Lockington. Straus stated this morning that because of the refusal the mother is now determined to have possession of the girl. He said that she was amply able to support her. Lockington is a resident of Hilo. The girl was never legally placed in the custody of Lockington, says Straus.

SALOMON LOSES SUIT

Leo E. Salomon loses in the circuit court in his $5000 damage suit against the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company. Judge Robinson this morning gave judgment for the defendant. Attorney George A. Davis, counsel for the plaintiff presented a motion for a new trial, which was denied and he then gave notice of appeal to the supreme court.

REDS MAY DRIVE BLUE FORCES TO CITY TOMORROW

Invading Army Forces Defend-ers to Fall Back—Rain Causes Havoc in Camp

WITH THE FOURTH CAVALRY, Near Waipahu, Oct. 25 (12:30 p. m.)—The Blue independent cavalry under Colonel Beach was forced to fall back toward Pearl City this morning before the advance of the Red forces, consisting of both cavalry and infantry, which was reported approaching from the north and west.

Colonel Beach decided to fight a delaying action and to this end he sent the 2nd squadron, Major Preston, to cover the right flank, while Major Harrison's squadron remained near Ewa mill to dispute approach along the railroad and the beach road.

The regimental reserve, consisting of two troops and the machine gun platoon, proceeded to a point about three miles north of Ewa, where communication with the several units of the command was established by flag. The Fourth fell back in good order, delaying the Red advance successfully. Major Preston with the 2nd squadron retired down the Kunihi road, leaving one troop in observation and then taking up a defensive position behind which the balance of the regiment and the wagon train retreated.

The 1st and 3rd squadrons meanwhile had fallen back on the reserves, carrying out the true province of cavalry. Colonel Beach's command operated over a widely scattered front, and the ability of a cavalry commander to use patrole to good advantage was well exemplified.

The Blue cavalry is a much-bedraggled outfit today, owing to another drenching received in camp last night. It took only about five minutes to make a giant mud-pie of the camp, tents and equipment getting a plastering of sticky gumbo. Camp was broken in good order and with speed this morning and a warm sun, completed the drying-out process after an hour on the road.

The cavalry will camp at Pearl City tonight, but will probably be forced to fall back on Honolulu Sunday.

The 2nd battalion, 1st Field Artillery, and the provisional squad of dismounted cavalry left Schofield Barracks this morning. The wagon soldiers are going to Red Hill to camp tonight. The horseless horse soldiers reached Pearl City shortly after noon, apparently in first rate condition in spite of the unusual hike.

With all three arms of the service meeting at the Pearl City cross-roads there were lively scenes during the noon hour.

CITIZENS FRIENDLY TO ARMY MANEUVERS

BY LAURENCE REDINGTON. (Star-Bulletin Staff Correspondent in the Field with the Blue Army.)

IN CAMP WITH THE 4TH CAVALRY, EWA MILL, Oct. 25.—Aside from important military problems to be solved, the present maneuver campaign is demonstrating something else—the extreme friendliness of the Oahu populace to the soldiers, and the readiness, especially of those in authority, to do everything possible to assist the troops. In time of war it is to be expected that land owners and those having large interests at stake, would do everything to assist the army that was defending their rights, but in peace time it is not uncommon elsewhere to find residents somewhat bored by a maneuver campaign, and not inclined to help out with the loan of camp sites, water supply, etc. A regiment of cavalry requires considerable space, and camping places are necessarily more or less cut up by the mounts and transportation. It is not everyone who is willing to offer the hospitality of his property to such a command.

The 4th horse, however, is fortunate in this respect, as Manager Ren-ton, of the Ewa plantation, has not only furnished a camp site near the mill, but has also done everything in

EUROPE IS AWAKE TO CRISIS

Powers Endeavoring to Formulate Joint Policy, Anticipating Uncle Sam's Refusal to Accept Result of Elections Tomorrow

WILSON EMPHASIZES PREEMINENT INTERESTS

Senator Bacon, Voicing Administration Views, Points Out U. S. Must Preserve Lawful Government

(Associated Press Cable) LONDON, Eng., Oct. 25.—Discussion and comment on the critical Mexican situation occupies foremost place in the newspapers of this city today, the various phases being recognized.

The government organs significantly declare that General Huerta should be recognized as president of Mexico because he is the most competent to handle the situation. If Washington is able to devise a better working program, it is suggested, Great Britain will be glad to cooperate with President Wilson.

PARIS, France, Oct. 25.—The Powers who are financially interested in the Mexican situation, which includes practically all of the European nations, are busy exchanging views in an endeavor to formulate a joint Mexican policy, evidently anticipating that the United States will decline to recognize the result of the elections tomorrow. Because the elections will be practically under the control of General Huerta, it is believed that the United States will not sanction the result of the balloting, and as the Powers might consider the officials named democratic provisionally, it is necessary to arrive at an understanding as to program.

SENATOR BACON VOICES VIEWS HELD BY WILSON

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 25.—Mexican affairs and the attitude of the United States came to the fore today in the course of notable conversations held at the re-dedication of famous old Congress hall. This hall, in which George Washington delivered his farewell address, has been restored and at the re-dedication ceremonies today there were present: Vice-President Marshall and large numbers of senators and the governors of the original 13 states of the Union. Many congressmen and diplomats were also in the distinguished crowd of honored guests.

Senator Bacon of Georgia, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, delivered an address understood to be expressive of the views held by President Wilson. Senator Bacon said that "the interest of the United States in Mexico is infinitely greater than that of any of the other Powers. They are primarily concerned in the protection of their material interests. With them it is not vital who extends that protection. With us it is a question not only of material but of neighborly interests, and even a moral right question of the promotion and maintenance of governments founded on law in all the countries of this hemisphere."

HUERTA INVITES DIAZ, BUT LATTER IS TIMID

(Associated Press Cable) VERA CRUZ, Mex., Oct. 25.—Carrying a personal written message from Dictator Huerta, the secretary of the Mexican minister of war arrived here today. The message was a request of Felix Diaz, couched in cordial and affectionate terms, that Gen. Diaz visit the capital.

HUERTA ARRESTS TWO ON CHARGE OF PLOTTING

(Associated Press Cable) MEXICO CITY, Mex., Oct. 25.—Gen. Jose Maria Sarvin, former chief of staff of General Mondragon at the time when Mondragon was minister of war, was arrested today charged with plotting to bring about election riots and demonstrations against the existing government. Another arrest was that of Manuel Madere, a cousin of the late president, in the town of Saltillo. He is taken on the same charge.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS LOSE MONTEREY AFTER BATTLE

(Associated Press Cable) BROWNVILLE, Tex., Oct. 25.—News from across the border is that the Constitutionalists have captured the important city of Monterey, driving out Huerta's forces in disorder.
